The Sanford School of Social and Family Dynamics (http://thesanfordschool.asu.edu/) invites applications for a full-time Assistant Research Professor. This is a benefits-eligible, non-tenure track position renewable on a fiscal year basis (July 1 – June 30) contingent upon satisfactory performance, availability of resources, and the needs of the unit. Anticipated start date is July 2016 (or shortly thereafter). The successful candidate will join a dynamic and interdisciplinary research team focused on the study of peer relationships and application of evidence-based practices in real-life contexts to improve the quality of children’s relationships and will be expected to conduct quality publishable research. For this position, successful candidates must have a PhD, equivalent, or have advanced to doctoral candidacy in child development, psychology, or related field, and have strong evidence of expertise in research on social-emotional development in childhood and adolescence. Preference will be given to candidates with (a) strong quantitative skills, (b) experience working in interdisciplinary settings, (c) experience in school-based data collection, and (d) experience in implementing programs for children and youth. Preference is also given to those candidates who have evidence for success in external funding.

Initial deadline for receipt of complete applications is February 10, 2016; if not filled, review of applications will continue every week thereafter until the search is closed. Electronic submission of materials is required. Electronically please send a letter of application describing your research and teaching background and interests, curriculum vitae, contact information for two references, and a sample of written work to Dr. Laura Hanish at ssfdhiring@gmail.com. A background check is required for employment.
